

Cash and Personal Expenses

For Cash and personal expenses you are required to have your personal bank account information on file at all times. If you remove your account information you will not receive a pay out! Please refer to Personal Banking information for instructions on entering your banking information.